Inter-school cooking competition

德望學校

On 9th January 2010, Regis Tang (6C) and Jasmine Cheng (6C) took part in a cooking competition using salmon in cooking Chinese New Year festive dishes. This contest was jointly organized by Norwegian Salmon Board HK and Sparklife HK. The contestants were required to send in their own designed recipe for the preliminary round. There were about 100 contestants taking part in the competition. Regis and Jasmine managed to get into the final round and their innovative dish (left picture) was awarded a Merit prize.
